From the Prezzz

A fantastic June comp, with plenty of wave for all competitors. A 20 event program and nothing but smiles all the way round. Thanks to Drew and his crew for organising such a great day and his direct line to Huey???.

The Club Web Site is progressing fantastically with a whole new appearance. We are still working through online payments and hope to have them up and running shortly.

The Old Mal Rally is our next event and for the first time we have been asked to host the Queensland Old Mal Title in conjunction with the Rally. Entries have been consistent but there is a 40 competitor limit, so make sure you get your entry in quick as spots are filling fast.

September sees the Jack Boast Memorial Junior Contest, so keep an eye on our web site for the entries forms.

The Director's Cut

Gday longboarders. Hopefully you are all fine and dandy. I bet everybody is hungry for waves as there hasn't been much happening since the start of winter. Our old mate Huey has gone into hibernation for the last seven weeks with only the odd 2 day swell here and there. We have had some excellent conditions, just a shortage of waves so I guess you've got to hit the road and look for a bank somewhere (very hard to find) or head south down to the southerly swell magnets in Mexico. Just have to take your cockroach spray and your shark cage and a boat full of tissues for all the sooky blues supporters "eh Rocket!!!" Hopefully Huey will wake from his slumber and throw some solid swell our way soon.

Last month's club comp was a cracking day with 18 heats surfing in conditions that just got better all day. I strolled down the path 2 minutes fashionably late (6.32am) as per usual and surveyed a crystal clean waste high set roll through the mighty Bluff with about 6 clowns out there already. Upon reaching the deck I could sense some mixed feelings about the days proceedings. I reckon 40% of the crowd were belly aching, 30% were keen and 30% were sitting on the fence. In true contest director style I said " Why the fire truck are those tents not up?", and within 5 minutes the bewildered mal riders had set up the whole shabang and away we went. The day just got better by the hour, conditions stayed offshore, the swell jacked up to shoulder high sets we had a feed and drinks, a few laughs and it was a cracking day to make it 6 in a row. Thanks to everybody who helped out on the day it was a memorable club comp.

The main focus now is on The QLD Old Mal Rally which is on Saturday 12th of August. Entries are rolling in so get in quick and secure a spot. The shirts look super hot and the comp will be full of mayhem and shenanigans I'm sure. We have a club comp this Sunday so be there and pray for swell as Huey has his phone disconnected, not sure what he's doing.

See ya in the soup
