Presidents Point Of View

On behalf of Alex Mal Club want to thank all of our sponsors who support us each year to make the Winter Classic so successful as without the support of them the event would not take place so thank you to all of the 35 Sponsors that contributed to make the event happen. A special pat on the back to every competitor that entered the contest and watching the heats semis and the finals the standard of longboarding was so unreal in the offshore conditions all day and Congratulations to all the finalist and the winners

Special mention to Drew Coulter our contest director who started working on their event with me 6 months ago also to Danielle and Cath and Tia for all their efforts.

Thanks so much to Amanda Davidson for the amazing artwork so many great comments on the T Shirt and Poster and the classic looking Trophies.

Gilles and Andrea from Scream Printing did a fantastic job on all the printing so thanks guys so much.

To all the Alex club members who helped set up 5am each morning and there after the last heat each day to pack it all away so Thanks so much.

Special thanks to Damian Coulter and Paul Tuckett for their commentating on the mike for the entire contest also big thanks to Stocky for his great efforts with the draw and judging and tally sheets and to Tony Willett for caring the trailer around in the dark for 3 days. Also to Jimmy's Catering for feeding us great food over the event.

Sponsorship is already looking strong for next year's event with 2 new sponsors coming on board after seeing this event on the weekend so that's great news for the 2019 Winter Classic.

Keep your fins wet

The Directors Cut

G'day longboarders I hope you all warm and well in this awesome winter month of June. Well it has been a big week with our winter longboard classic being run over three days of near perfect winter weather, with blue skies, offshore winds and clean crisp little waves at Pincushion Maroochydore. Over the past two weeks we have had great waves up and down our beaches and on the points, then a week out from the comp we had a declining swell with no more swell coming and nothing on the forecast. "panick stations" I hit the panick button and started checking all available beach breaks. We are so lucky to have a river mouth that always produces something in the way of surf banks, so the decision was made on Tuesday that Pinnies was our saving grace and she did not disappoint.

Over three days we managed to surf 12 divisions with sixty one events and 120 single entries and 170 entered spots overall to achieve another epic winter longboard classic competition. I can't say enough good things about all the awesome people that pitch in and work hard over the weekend to make this all possible, you all champions and play a vital role in the success of a great event. I just want to thank everybody who helps out in any way at all over the course of the comp you all legend and thank you so much for your efforts. The early morning crew standing there shivering at 5am in the morning in the cold putting up with my grumpyness as I pull up and start cracking the shits, you guys need a medal. And a chest to pin it on, haha.

A massive thank you to all our sponsors, without your support there is no comp. A massive thank you to all competitors for entering and surfing regardless of conditions with a smile on your faces. A massive thank you to our committee for your tireless efforts over the whole year. A massive thank you to Danielle and Cath, the amount of work these girls do behind the scenes would knock your socks off. A massive thank you to our president Kevin Annetts, the amount of work he does is phenomenal. And a special thank you to Mitch Surman for his selfless beautiful act of generosity in handing a competitor's prize board he won to Danielle Wilson, that was one of the highlights of the weekend, thanks Mitch if I'm a good boy she might give me a go of the new stick. Ok guys we might have a club comp this weekend and need to sort some teams for the fun in the sun so see you Sunday, be there or be square.

See you in the soup,

Drew

From the Treasurers

Howdy all

I hope everyone enjoyed the Winter Classic weekend. I know I did!! Being held up the beach at Maroochy gave us some awesome conditions and nice waves. Everyone put in a massive effort which made everything run pretty smoothly. We don't have any financials to report yet, however I think we have done quite well. The food tent was a hit with competitors especially Brendan Dowd who travels all the way from Victoria for a Jimmy's dukkah chicken burger. Cath was the raffle ticket seller extraordinaire. The Belcher Hayden raffle board sold out too. The MS board and the Beachbeat Pacer were not far off a sell-out either. Thanks to all of our generous sponsors for your ongoing support. Gilles and Andrea did an amazing job with the t-shirts, hoodies, posters and comp bags as well. Thanks legends. We still have hoodies for sale $40 each so grab one at the next comp this weekend. The highlight for me was being given the competitor's board from Mitch Surman who actually won it... Love ya bud. I am one lucky chick.

See you all on Sunday
